LOOKING FOR A NEW HOME?

Is there a new home in your future? If the thought of spending another winter in your cramped, drafty house is too much to bear, now may be the perfect time to shop for a home. When it comes to the financing of your new home, let your credit union help. Visit us online before you go house hunting.

We will:

- Find out the amount you qualify for
- Determine your monthly payment
- Tell you the funds needed to close
- Check your credit for peace of mind
- Offer you lower closing cost

ATFCU offers competitive rates and lower closing cost than other lenders.

the LAST Word

The New Year lies before you like a spotless track of snow.

Be careful how you tread it, for every mark will show.

The 71st Annual Meeting of the Atlanta Teachers Federal Credit Union will be held on Monday, February 27, 2006 at 5:00 PM. The meeting will be held at Alonzo F. Herndon Elementary School, 350 Temple St., NW, Atlanta, Georgia. 30314.

Mark your calendar now to attend your credit union's 2006 annual meeting. This is one of your credit union's most important yearly events where you will learn about the financial health of your credit union through various reports by your credit union officers. You will also learn about future plans for your credit union in the areas of new programs and services. And, most importantly, you will take part in the democratic process of electing new officers. This is a key difference between your credit union and banks and other "for-profit" financial institutions. You actually get to have a voice in your credit union's future through your member-elected governing board.

There will be door prizes and refreshments and a chance to meet and visit with staff members, elected officials, and your fellow credit union members. Plan to attend now. If you have any questions about the annual meeting, call or stop by your credit union today.

Please complete and return the attached reservation form to our office by Monday February 20, 2006:
